For Hay Fever or Asthma

Many persons dread July on account of hay fever. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is recognized as the ideal remedy for hay fever and asthma. It heals and soothes the raw, rasping throat and eases the choking sensation. It allays inflammation and irritation and brings easy, natural breathing. For sale by John W. Thurston. adv

Birthday Party.

Francis Jones entertained a party of his boy and girl friends on the lawn at his home on Birch Point on Monday afternoon. It was the second anniversary of his birth and though he was the youngest member of the gathering, he proved an excellent host by giving his little guests a jolly good time. Among the little ones present were Helen Johnson, Helen Dyer, Jessie Johnson, Thos. Austin, Maynard Stevens, Jr. After the children had had a luncheon, the mothers were served light refreshments on the lawn by Mrs. Jones.

Entertainment Course.

The Ladies' Literary Club have engaged the following talent, through the White Entertainment Bureau of Boston, for their entertainment course which will be given in Opera Hall during the fall and winter seasons: Grace Sage, The Brewer Company, Dr. G. W. Ray, The Virginians and the Warwick Quartette.

The ladies are to be commended for their enterprise in providing the public with an opportunity to hear such clever people.

BARGAINS in Summer Footwear

L. F. JONES, DRY GOODS

Harry Knapp, clerk in McCaffrey's restaurant, Newport, passed through here en route for Lyndonville one day the past week.

Mrs. Nason of Portland, is passing a few days with relatives and friends here. She will be remembered as Geraldine Kilpatrick.

The ladies of the Cong'l church will hold a food sale in the Cong'l church parlors Saturday afternoon, July 24, at four o'clock.

Rev. John Tannar of Dixville, Que., conducted the services at Christ church last Sunday morning. Holy Communion was celebrated.

Fred Boyce and wife left town Thursday for a weeks visit with relatives and friends at Ludlow. The trip was made by automobile.

The ladies of the Methodist church held a most successful food sale in their parlors last Saturday afternoon and realized a goodly sum.

A. P. Cobb and wife, Mrs. King and daughter, Sadie, with a friend, Miss White, from Gardner, Mass., are spending this week at Seymour Lake.

A delegation of New Yorkers, who are in camp at Seymour Lake for the summer months, were in town Monday en route to Lewis pond.

J. W. Campbell, Mrs. Freida Ellis and daughter, Beulah, Mrs. A. F. Burbank and Mrs. Adam Danforth motored to Orleans and Newport Sunday.

Mrs. Harry J. Ladd, who has been spending the past eight weeks with her mother, Mrs. B. J. McKenney, returned to her home in Rumford, Me., last Friday noon.

Charles Young of Derby, accompanied by G. A. Newton and Harry Ryder of Cambridge Junction, are here for a few days' fishing. They came in Mr. Young's auto.

The Island Pond Juniors will go to Coaticook tomorrow to play the team there. This is the rubber game, and it looks as though the game should be a good one.

J. V. Rowen, who recently opened a new $100,000 hotel at Barre, is a brother of Mrs. C. R. Powell of this village. Mr. Rowen formerly conducted the Hotel Barton at Barton.

Miss Ella E. MacKenzie, master's assistant at the Phillips grammar school, Watertown, Mass., is spending her summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. MacKenzie.

Friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Griffin of Hartford, Conn., will be interested to learn of a daughter born to them on July 5. Mr. Griffin was a former plumber for the Bosworth Store Co.

James Kidder and wife and Mrs. Ida Kidder of this town and Mr. Kidder and wife of Haverhill, Mass., motored to Ayers Cliff, Que., Sunday, for a two days' visit to their old home.

G. L. Kidder and wife of Haverhill, Mass., have spent the past week with his brother, James Kidder. Mr. Kidder has not been in our town for several years and mentioned many changes.

Wm. Olson, operator for the G. T. R., has returned after a two weeks' vacation spent in Portland and Boston. "Bill" seems to be some swimmer and says the beaches are fine.

Mrs. Josie Crawford, who recently returned from a Portland hospital, is quite ill, and is stopping at the Essex House temporarily; she is under the care of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Page.

R. G. Webster was seriously hurt last Saturday when he fell from a load of hay near the convent. Mr. Webster struck on his head, and the last reports say that his injuries are quite serious.

Little Mabel Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wallace, has been ill with an abscess on the back of the head. Dr. Norcross is attending her and the little one is getting on very nicely.

Jos. Finnegan, while working on the new barn of Jacob Barnes, fell into a trench and received severe body bruises and abrasions about the face. The recent accident occurred last Saturday.

Not very large crowds attended the performances given by H. Price Webber and his able company in the opera house hall. Mr. Webber has many friends in town who are always pleased to meet him.

A party composed of Mrs. D. Stern, George and Louis Brandenstein, Julius and Isadore Stern, left this week for a few days' trip through the White Mountains and other points, in Mrs. Stern's auto.

Mrs. Annie Vallee received a bad fall at her rooms in the Essex House last Saturday night. Dr. Parlin was called and found it necessary to take two stitches to close a wound Mrs. Vallee received over the eye.

David Quinn, better known to acquaintances here as "Barney," took one of Gorham's (N. H.) prettiest daughters as his bride, July 7, at that place. The wedding was one of the largest and prettiest of the season.

Mrs. Emma C. Reeve and Miss Reeve have as a guest at their home this week Mrs. C. D. Waters of Montpelier. Mrs. Waters was a former Island Pond lady and will be gladly welcomed by those who knew her at that time.

The fire fiend seems to pursue the Covill family; about two months ago the house of Ervin Covill of Westmore was burned, and but two weeks later his dwelling was again burned, and Tuesday the house of his brother, Albion, was brought to the ground by flames.

The Episcopal church is being painted. The body part of the building is painted stone color, practically the same color as before but the trimmings are changed from brown to white. The work is being done by Coffey brothers, who painted the building some twenty-two years ago.

The heavy rain of last week caused the streams hereabouts to rise rapidly. The pond rose over two feet, and at one time water was flowing back into the pond from the river, instead of flowing out as customary. This is nothing unusual in the early spring, but it is unusual at this time of the year.

Mrs. W. W. Prance of Boston, who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. R. P. Lacroix, for the past two weeks, returned home Thursday. An uncle, Joseph Cushing of Minneapolis, formerly of Milwaukee, is also visiting there, and also other relatives in town, and renewing old acquaintances after an absence of thirty-eight years.

Not many towns boast of a more simon pure baseball fan than one right here in our village. Leon Morse, the popular clerk for the Wilcox Co., wishing to make sure that a good crowd should be on hand at the ball game last Saturday, had dodgers printed advertising the game and paid for them himself. Evidently he believes in advertising.

Much damage was done to gardens by the steady downpour of rain which continued all day Thursday of last week. Meadow land sustained serious injury, cellars were flooded and the river overflowed its banks. Not for years has there been so many hours of steady downpour at a time. We are fortunate in that there was not so much damage done here as in surrounding towns.
